Scott Smith Joins Spire's Leadership Team

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 15, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Scott Smith recently joined Spire as president of Spire Storage and Spire STL Pipeline. In this role, he leads the company's operations and commercialization of natural gas storage facilities in Wyoming and pipelines serving Spire Missouri East and other midwestern U.S. markets.

Smith brings more than 30 years of energy industry experience to Spire. Most recently, he served as president & CEO of Midstream Energy Holdings, which develops and operates midstream assets in North America. He's also held leadership positions with Black & Veatch, Lukens Energy Group, Southern Company and Atlantic Richfield Company (ARCO).

"Spire has a long history of providing safe and reliable energy to the communities it serves," Smith said. "At the same time, the company is growing, innovating and expanding its midstream services—all to find new and improved ways of connecting people and energy. That balance of an established, yet transformative company, is what excites me about joining the Spire team."

Smith is based out of Spire's Houston office.

He has served in various board and leadership roles with the Southern Gas Association, West University Little League, and the Houston Arts Fund. He and his wife, Katie, have two children.
