MARIETTA, Ga., July 19, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- BlueLinx Holdings Inc. (NYSE: BXC) ("BlueLinx") is proud to announce that its President and Chief Executive Officer, Dwight Gibson, as well as Chief People Officer Kevin Henry are included in Savoy Magazine's prestigious 2022 Most Influential Black Executives in Corporate America issue.

Savoy Magazine is the leading African American business and lifestyle magazine. Its esteemed annual Most Influential Black Executives in Corporate America publication is considered the definitive listing of African American executives, influencers, and achievers impacting corporate America.

"I'm truly honored that Kevin and I are recognized among the best and brightest African American leaders, particularly given that the listing takes into account not only corporate influence but also how we each are making an impact in our communities," said Gibson.

Henry added, "The inclusion is a great reflection of the momentum and leadership culture we're building here at BlueLinx."

The 2022 Most Influential Black Executives in Corporate America is an elite representation of executives who are making strides at the helm of some of the highest-performing companies throughout the US and beyond. It is especially notable that two BlueLinx leaders are included on the list. They are among a small number of African American executives in the building supply industry as well as in the ranks of publicly traded companies.

The honor is one more achievement during a year of measurable progress for both executives. Gibson recently marked his first year as CEO of BlueLinx, during which he led the company to exceptional financial performance, and in June led the team as it rang The New York Stock Exchange opening bell. Henry joined the organization in 2022 and already has directed efforts to establish an inclusive, high-performance culture. Together, they are building a world-class leadership team to drive the company's continued success.

You can access the 2022 Most Influential Black Executives in Corporate America listing in the Summer issue of Savoy, released on July 18, 2022.
