ADI Celebrates and Honors Customer Award Winners at ISE 2026

2026-02-06

At ISE 2026, ADI officially announced and celebrated the winners of the prestigious Control4 Partner Awards during a special event held last night. The party and awards ceremony underscored the company's shared commitment to putting customers first and recognizing partner achievements, reinforcing the goal to deliver more innovation, more integration, and more opportunities to grow. The 42 winners were selected by regional ADI representatives, regional distributors, or through a competitive entry system.

"The Control4 Partner Awards are about recognizing the dedication, innovation, and commitment our partners bring to their businesses and to their customers every day," said Mark Reynolds, ADI Vice President & General Manager, EMEA. "Our partners' success is our success, and with Control4 fully integrated into ADI, we deeply value our partners' commitment and the strength of our shared partnership. These winners exemplify what it means to put the customer first while driving growth and embracing innovation. We're proud to celebrate their achievements and continue working together to deliver more opportunity, more integration, and more success."

The Distributor of the Year Award recognizes customers who have demonstrated excellence in category and brand adoption, market development initiatives, and overall engagement with the ADI team.

In addition, 19 customers received the Partner of the Year Award, recognizing those who consistently demonstrate loyalty to ADI offerings, a shared commitment to the company's ethos, and a passion for mutual growth.

The Circle of Excellence Award recognises a highly commendable Partner who has demonstrated allegiance to products and solutions, with an enthusiasm for our ethos and commitment to our shared growth. The Circle of Excellence

Category Adoption Award recognizes customers who have successfully integrated a broad range of ADI categories into their business.

The Circle of Excellence Business Growth Award honors customers who have achieved outstanding year-over-year growth with ADI, reflecting both strong business performance and continued commitment to products and solutions across their projects. The Circle of Excellence Service & Support Proposition Award celebrates customers who have effectively communicated and delivered exceptional support and maintenance to clients and prospects.

The Circle of Excellence Marketing Initiative Award recognizes customers who have executed innovative marketing campaigns that elevate the industry, promote their business and solutions, and deliver a strong return on investment.

The Top Volume Award honors the customer with the highest spend in Europe, reflecting strong confidence in, commitment to, and loyalty toward ADI products and solutions.
