SECOND QUARTER 2026

Investor Presentation

Forward-Looking Statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding the Company's outlook for the third quarter of 2026 and the 2026 fiscal year including, among others: reported and constant currency revenue; reported gross margin; reported and adjusted operating margin; reported and adjusted diluted earnings per share; diluted weighted average shares; the Company's outlook for revenue performance of the Active Group and Work Group and particular brands; as well as statements regarding the Company's opportunity to expand into broader lifestyle wearing occasions; benefits of the Company's strategic advantages; aspirations for its organic revenue growth, profitability, gross margin, operating margin, cash flow from operations, capital allocation, investments in the Company's business, debt reduction, dividend payments, EPS growth, dividend yield and total shareholder return; and the Company's positioning for sustained, profitable growth. In addition, words such as estimates, "anticipates," "believes," "forecasts," "step," "plans," "predicts," "focused," "projects," "outlook," "is likely," "expects," "intends," "should," "will," "confident," variations of such words, and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties, and assumptions ("Risk Factors") that are difficult to predict with regard to timing, extent, likelihood, and degree of occurrence. Risk Factors include, among others: changes in general economic conditions, geopolitical conditions, employment rates, business conditions, interest rates, tax policies, and other factors affecting consumer spending and confidence in the markets and regions in which the Company's products are sold; increases or changes in duties, tariffs, quotas or applicable assessments in countries of import and export; the inability for any reason to effectively compete in global footwear, apparel and direct-to-consumer markets; the inability to maintain positive brand images and anticipate, understand and respond to changing footwear and apparel trends and consumer preferences; the inability to effectively manage inventory levels; foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations; currency restrictions; supply chain and capacity constraints, production and distribution disruptions, including service interruptions at shipping and receiving ports, increased logistics and freight expenses resulting from regional conflicts; reduction in operating hours, labor shortages, and facility closures resulting in production delays at the Company's manufacturers, quality issues, price increases or other risks associated with foreign sourcing; the cost, including the effect of inflationary pressures and volatility in oil prices, and availability of raw materials, inventories, services and labor for contract manufacturers; changes in relationships with, including the loss of, significant wholesale customers; risks related to the significant investment in, and performance of, the Company's direct-to-consumer operations; risks related to expansion into new markets and complementary product categories; the impact of seasonality and unpredictable weather conditions; the impact of changes in general economic conditions, and/or the credit markets on the Company's manufacturers, distributors, suppliers, joint venture partners and wholesale customers; changes in the Company's effective tax rates; failure of licensees or distributors to meet planned annual sales goals or to make timely payments to the Company; the risks of doing business in developing countries, and politically or economically volatile areas; the ability to secure and protect owned intellectual property or use licensed intellectual property; legal compliance and litigation risks, including with respect to federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to the protection of the environment, environmental remediation and other related costs, and environmental effects on human health; risks of breach of the Company's databases or other systems, or those of its vendors, which contain certain personal information, payment card data or proprietary information, due to cyberattack or other similar events; strategic actions, including new initiatives and ventures, acquisitions and dispositions, and the Company's success in integrating acquired businesses; risks related to stockholder activism; the risk of impairment to goodwill and other intangibles; the success of the Company's restructuring and realignment initiatives undertaken from time to time; changes in future pension funding requirements and pension expenses; and additional factors discussed in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and exhibits thereto. The foregoing Risk Factors, as well as other existing Risk Factors and new Risk Factors that emerge from time to time, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Given these or other risks and uncertainties, investors should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as a prediction of actual results. Furthermore, the Company undertakes no obligation to update, amend, or clarify forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Appendix

Non-GAAP Information

Measures referred to in this release as “adjusted” financial results and the financial results of the “ongoing business” are non-GAAP measures. Adjusted financial results exclude litigation, environmental and other related costs net of recoveries, non-cash impairment of long-lived assets, reorganization costs, pension settlement costs, financing transaction costs, gain on sale of business, trademarks and long-lived assets, and costs associated with divestitures. The financial results of the ongoing business exclude financial results from the Sperry business, Keds business, and Wolverine Leathers business in 2023, and the Sperry business in 2024. Results of the ongoing business for 2025, Q1 2026, and Q2 2026 are the same as reported GAAP results. The Company also presents constant currency information, which is a non-GAAP measure that excludes the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. The Company calculates constant currency basis by converting the current-period local currency financial results using the prior period exchange rates and comparing these adjusted amounts to the Company’s current period reported results. The Company believes providing each of these non-GAAP measures provides valuable supplemental information regarding its results of operations, consistent with how the Company evaluates performance.

The Company has provided a reconciliation of each of the above non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure. The Company believes these non-GAAP measures provide useful information to both management and investors because they increase the comparability of current period results to prior period results by adjusting for certain items that may not be indicative of core operating results and enable better identification of trends in our business. The adjusted financial results are used by management to, and allow investors to, evaluate the operating performance of the Company on a comparable basis. Management does not, nor should investors, consider such non-GAAP financial measures in isolation from, or as a substitute for, financial information prepared in accordance with GAAP.
