LendingClub Bank Wins Multiple Awards in GOBankingRates' "Best Online Banks of 2023" Lists

January 18, 2023

Listed as a Best Online Bank, a Best Neobank, a Best Online and Neobank Savings Account, and a Best Checking Account

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- LendingClub Bank, America's leading digital marketplace bank and a subsidiary of LendingClub Corporation (NYSE: LC), has been recognized as a Best Online Bank, a Best Neobank, a Best Online and Neobank Savings Account, and a Best Checking Account on the "Best Banks of 2023" lists by GOBankingRates.com, a leading personal finance and consumer banking website. This is the second consecutive year LendingClub Bank has made GOBankingRates' "Best Online Banks" list.

In order to help Americans determine the best banks for their needs, GOBankingRates examined over 120 banks and 50 credit unions. GOBankingRates' Best Banks of 2023 scores and rankings are objectively determined by their research/editorial team. Their scoring formula weighs several factors that differ from category to category depending on what consumers want from varying products and banks.

"LendingClub is honored to be recognized by GOBankingRates as a Best Online Bank, a Best Neobank, a Best Online and Neobank Savings Account, and a Best Checking Account for 2023," said David Goeden, Senior Vice President, Head of Retail and Online Banking at LendingClub. "Our digital marketplace bank captures more value across the lending, spending and saving ecosystem and enables us to offer better benefits to our members."

LendingClub's superior products and services are built to help its members achieve and maintain financial wellness. For personal banking, LendingClub offers a High-Yield Savings account with a current rate of 4.00%[1], a Rewards Checking account and certificates of deposits (CDs) with competitive interest rates for new and existing members alike[2].
