The Audit Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members of the Board all of whom shall meet the independence, experience and expertise requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and applicable rules and regulations. Each member of the Audit Committee must be financially literate, as such qualification is interpreted by the Company's Board in its business judgment, or must become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Audit Committee. In addition, at least one member of the Audit Committee must have accounting or related financial management expertise, as the Company's Board interprets such qualification in its business judgement, and at least one member of the Audit Committee must be an "audit committee financial expert" within the meaning of Item 407 of Regulation S-K. Members of the Committee shall not simultaneously serve on this committee and the committees of more than two other public companies without prior approval of the Board of Directors.

The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Audit Committee members may be removed and replaced by the Board.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Financial Review
 - a) Discuss with management and the independent auditor the annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements, including the Company's disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and matters required to be reviewed under applicable legal, regulatory or New York Stock Exchange requirements.
 - b) Review the company's financial reporting and accounting standards and principles, significant changes in such standards or principles or in their application and the key accounting decisions affecting the company's financial statements, including alternatives to, and the rationale for, the decisions made.
 - c) Discuss with management and the independent auditor, as appropriate, earnings press releases and financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and to rating agencies.
2. Internal Audit
 - a) Review and approve the internal audit functions, including: (i) purpose, authority, organizational reporting lines, and charter; (ii) annual audit plan, budget and staffing; and (iii) the appointment and compensation of the Senior Internal Audit Executive.
 - b) Review the results of internal audits.
 - c) Ensure the IA department stays compliant with all IIA standards including getting an external quality review every 5 years.
3. Independent Auditors
 - a) Appointment of the independent auditor, subject to shareholder approval, to examine the company's accounts, controls and financial statements. The committee shall have the sole authority and responsibility to select, evaluate and if necessary replace the independent auditor. The independent auditor shall report directly to the committee. The committee shall have the sole authority to pre - approve all audit engagement fees and terms and the committee, or a member of the committee, must pre-approve any non-audit service provided to the company by the company's independent auditor. The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the committee, for payment of compensation to any independent auditor.

- b) Discuss with management and the independent auditor, as appropriate, any audit problems or difficulties and management’s response, including the resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting.
 - c) Obtain and review at least annually a formal written report from the independent auditor delineating: (i) the auditors’ independence; (ii) the auditors’ internal quality-control procedures; and (iii) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues. The committee will also review steps taken by the auditing firm to address any findings in any of the foregoing reviews. Also, in order to assess auditor independence, the committee will review at least annually all relationships between the independent auditor and the company.
 - d) Set policies for the hiring of employees or former employees of the company’s independent auditor.
4. Controls, Compliance and Risk Oversight
- a) The Audit Committee provides oversight of the system of internal controls over financial reporting (ICFR).
 - b) Review with senior management and discuss the company’s guidelines, policies and actions taken to govern, monitor, control and mitigate risk assessment, risk exposure and risk management to ensure such policies and actions are appropriate.
 - c) Review and investigate any matters pertaining to the integrity of management, including conflicts of interest, compliance with financial controls, and adherence to standards of business conduct and ethics, as required in the policies of the company.
5. Produce the annual Audit Committee report required by the rules of the SEC to be included in the Company’s proxy statement.
6. Review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
7. Annually review its own performance.
8. Make quarterly reports and recommendations to the Board.

9. Meet separately as often as determined appropriate but not less frequently than quarterly in executive sessions with Management, the head of Internal Audit, and the Company's Independent Auditors.
10. The Committee's function is one of oversight only and shall not relieve the Company's management of its responsibilities for preparing financial statements which accurately and fairly present the Company's financial results and condition, or the responsibilities of the independent accountants relating to the audit or review of financial statements.

AUTHORITY

In carrying out the responsibilities listed above, the Audit Committee shall have the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities and the authority to retain experts as it determines appropriate to assist it in the conduct of its duties. The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to any expert employed by the Committee.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees or members as provided in this Charter or when otherwise appropriate.

ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

A majority of the members of this Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of the majority of Committee members present at a meeting where a quorum is present shall be the act of this Committee, unless a different vote is required by express provision of law, the Bylaws, or the Certificate of Incorporation.

PROCEDURE FOR REPORTING ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING CONCERNS

The Committee is responsible for establishing procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

Adopted by the Audit Committee on November 14, 2018.

Wabash National Corporation

Compensation Committee Charter

Effective November 21, 2019

PURPOSE

The Compensation Committee is appointed by the Board to discharge the Board’s responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) and other executive officers, and to consider, recommend, administer and implement the Company’s incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans.

The Compensation Committee is also responsible for preparing a report on executive compensation for inclusion in the Company’s annual meeting proxy statement, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.

COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

The Compensation Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members of the Board. The members of the Compensation Committee shall meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and any other legal requirements relevant to the proper administration of the Company’s executive compensation program, including requirements under the federal securities laws and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

The members of the Compensation Committee shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Compensation Committee members may be removed and replaced by the Board, but all replacements shall be made on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

COMMITTEE POWERS, AUTHORITY, DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The Compensation Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any compensation consultant to be used to assist in the evaluation of CEO or other executive officer compensation, including the sole authority to approve the consultant’s fees and other retention terms. The Compensation Committee shall also have authority to obtain advice and assistance from internal or outside legal, accounting or other advisors. The Committee shall consider the independence factors enumerated by the New York Stock Exchange when selecting a compensation consultant, legal counsel, accounting or other advisor.
2. The Compensation Committee shall annually review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to CEO compensation, evaluate the CEO’s performance in light of those goals and objectives, and set the CEO’s compensation level based on this evaluation. In determining the long-term incentive component of CEO compensation, the Compensation Committee shall consider the Company’s performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to CEOs at comparable companies and the awards given to the CEO in past years, and may consider such other factors as it deems necessary or advisable.

3. The Compensation Committee shall annually and at the time of any new hire review and approve, for the CEO position, (a) the annual base salary amount, (b) annual bonus arrangements, if any, (c) any long-term incentive compensation, (d) any employment agreements, severance arrangements, and change in control and similar agreements/provisions, and any amendments, supplements or waivers to the foregoing agreements, in each case as, when and if deemed necessary or advisable and (e) any perquisites, special or supplemental benefits.
4. The Compensation Committee shall annually and at the time of any new hire review and recommend to the Board for its approval, for the executive officers of the Company, (a) the annual base salary amount, (b) annual bonus arrangements, if any, (c) any long-term incentive compensation, (d) any employment agreements, severance arrangements, and change in control and similar agreements/provisions, and any amendments, supplements or waivers to the foregoing agreements, in each case as, when and if deemed necessary or advisable and (e) any perquisites, special or supplemental benefits. To the extent appropriate or necessary to comply with any federal securities or tax law requirements, such as Rule 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or Section 162 (m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the Board may delegate exclusive authority to the Compensation Committee to approve or ratify elements of compensation of executive officers.
5. The Compensation Committee shall consider, recommend, administer and implement the Company's incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans in which the CEO, other executive officers and other employees of the Company and its subsidiaries may be participants, including, but not limited to, (a) approving option grants and restricted stock or other awards, (b) interpreting the plans, (c) determining rules and regulations relating to the plans, (d) modifying or canceling existing grants or awards and (e) imposing limitations, restrictions and conditions upon any grant or award as the Compensation Committee deems necessary or advisable. However, to the extent permitted by applicable laws, the Compensation Committee may delegate its authority under this Section 5 to the CEO and other executive officers relative to the consideration, recommendation, administration and implementation of the Company's incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans for participants who are not executive officers.
6. The Compensation Committee shall annually assess the desirability of proposing and make recommendations to the Board with respect to any new incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans and any increase in shares reserved for issuance under existing equity plans.

Wabash National Corporation – Compensation Committee Charter

7. The Compensation Committee shall prepare a report on executive compensation for inclusion in the Company's annual meeting proxy statement, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
8. The Compensation Committee shall annually review and recommend to the full Board of Directors annual retainers and/or other remuneration to be paid to non-executive, elected directors.
9. The Compensation Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees if determined to be necessary or advisable.
10. The Compensation Committee shall make reports to the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting following the meeting of the Compensation Committee.
11. The Compensation Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
12. The Compensation Committee shall annually review its own performance.
13. The Compensation Committee shall have such other authority and responsibilities as may be assigned to it from time to time by the Board.
