

Supermicro® Announces Filing of Revised Compliance Plan with Nasdaq Stock Market

February 28, 2018

SAN JOSE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 28, 2018-- Super Micro Computer, Inc. (NASDAQ:SMCI), a global leader in high performance, high-efficiency server, storage technology and green computing, today announced that on February 28, 2018 it had submitted a revised compliance plan (the "Compliance Plan") to The Nasdaq Stock Market ("Nasdaq"). The Compliance Plan relates to the Company's delinquencies in filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017 and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended September 30 and December 31, 2017 (the "Delinquent Filings"), which delinquencies resulted in non-compliance with Nasdaq's continued listing requirements. Nasdaq had previously granted an exception to its listing requirements which expires on March 13, 2018. The Company has requested that such exception continue and that Nasdaq grant the Company a second 180-day exception period in order for the Company to finalize and file its Delinquent Filings. Supermicro intends to take all necessary steps within the Nasdaq process for extensions and appeals and to achieve compliance with the Nasdaq's continued listing requirements as soon as practicable.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Statements contained in this press release that are not historical fact may be forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
