I. Purpose and Powers

The purposes of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board are to:

1. Provide counsel to the Board with respect to the organization, function and composition of the Board and its committees.
2. Oversee the self-evaluation of the Board and, if any, the Board’s evaluation of management.
3. Periodically review and, if appropriate, recommend to the Board changes to the Company’s corporate governance policies and procedures.
4. Identify and recommend to the Board potential director candidates for nomination.
5. Assist the Board in connection with transactions (“Related Party Transactions”) and conflict of interest situations (“Conflicts”) involving the Company, on the one hand, and any of the Company’s advisor, a director, an officer, a significant stockholder or any affiliate thereof, on the other hand, including, without limitation, all transactions required to be reported under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

The Committee shall have all of the powers of the Board that are necessary or appropriate for the Committee to fulfill its purposes and carry out its duties and responsibilities as set forth in this Charter. In addition, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities delegated to it by the Board from time to time consistent with the Company’s Bylaws. The powers and responsibilities delegated by the Board to the Committee in this Charter or otherwise shall be exercised and carried out by the Committee as it deems appropriate without requirement of further Board approval, and any decision made by the Committee (including any decision to exercise or refrain from exercising any of the powers delegated to the Committee hereunder) shall be at the Committee’s sole discretion.

The Committee shall have the authority, as it deems appropriate, to retain or replace, as needed, any independent counsel, any search firm to be used to identify director candidates and any other outside experts or advisors as the Committee believes to be desirable or appropriate. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to any such persons employed by the Committee and for ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company’s regular legal counsel or other advisors to the Company.

II. Membership

The Committee shall be composed of two or more directors selected by the Board, each of whom, as determined by the Board:

1. meets the definition of “independent director” set forth in the rules of the New York Stock Exchange for companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE Rules”) and applicable regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”);

2. has experience that would be helpful in addressing the matters delegated to the Committee; and

3. at all times complies with any other applicable NYSE Rules and the rules and regulations of the Commission, in each case, as modified or amended from time to time.

Committee members may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause, by the Board. The Board shall appoint, from time to time, from among the Committee members a Chair. Any action duly taken by the Committee shall be valid and effective, whether or not the members of the Committee at the time of such action are later determined not to have satisfied the requirements for membership provided herein.

III. Meetings and Procedures

The Chair (or in his or her absence, a member selected by the Committee) shall preside at each meeting of the Committee and set the agenda for each Committee meeting. The Committee shall have the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company’s Bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee shall meet on a regularly scheduled basis at least once per year and more frequently as the Committee deems necessary or desirable.

All non-management directors who are not members of the Committee may attend and observe meetings of the Committee, but shall not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless invited to do so by the Committee, and in any event shall not be entitled to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, including but not limited to, any director who is not a member of the Committee. The Committee may, at its discretion, include in its meetings members of the Company’s management, representatives of the independent auditor, the Company’s internal auditor, any other financial personnel employed or retained by the Company or any other persons whose presence the Committee believes to be desirable or appropriate.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall evaluate each individual in the context of the Board as a whole, with the objective of assembling a group that can best perpetuate the success of the business and represent stockholder interests through the exercise of sound judgment using its diversity of experience in these various areas.

(d) If the Company is legally required by its charter or Bylaws, by contract or otherwise to provide third parties with the ability to designate one or more of the Board's nominees for election as directors, the selection, recommendation and nomination of such directors shall not be subject to review or recommendation by the Committee, but any such nominee so designated shall satisfy the criteria set forth herein or determined in accordance herewith for nominees recommended by the Committee.

(e) The Committee may adopt a policy regarding the consideration of any director candidates recommended by the Company's stockholders.

2. In appropriate circumstances, the Committee, in its discretion, shall consider and may recommend the removal of a director for cause and the calling of a special meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of such removal, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Company's charter and Bylaws.

3. The Committee shall periodically review the Board's structure, including the structure of all standing or any ad hoc committees of the Board, and recommend to the Board for its approval such changes in number, function or composition of the Board or any such committees as the Committee deems appropriate.

4. The Committee shall identify individuals qualified to be members, and the chair, of each standing committee of the Board and recommend to the Board candidates for service on each such committee. In evaluating directors to serve as members of each committee of the Board, the Committee (i) shall take into account the applicable requirements for members of committees of boards of directors under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the NYSE Rules, the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and the charter of each such committee and (ii) may take into account such other factors or criteria as the committee deems appropriate, including directors' preferences for committee membership, judgment, skill, integrity and business or other experience.

5. In appropriate circumstances, the Committee, in its discretion, shall consider and recommend to the Board the removal of a director from a standing committee of the Board.

6. The Committee shall oversee the Board's annual review of its performance and the performance of the other committees of the Board, and will make appropriate recommendations to improve performance.

7. The Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board for adoption a set of Corporate Governance Guidelines and shall implement and monitor compliance with the Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee periodically shall review the Corporate Governance Guidelines and recommend changes as necessary to the Board.

8. The Committee may make recommendations to the Board regarding governance matters, including, but not limited to, the Company's charter, Bylaws, this Charter and the charters of the Company's other committees.

9. The Committee shall consider, develop and recommend to the Board such policies and procedures with respect to the nomination of directors or other corporate governance matters as may be required pursuant to the NYSE Rules or the rules and regulations of the Commission or that the Committee otherwise considers to be desirable and appropriate.

10. The Committee shall evaluate its own performance on an annual basis, including its compliance with this Charter, and provide the Board with any recommendations for changes in procedures or policies governing the Committee. The Committee shall conduct such evaluation and review in such manner as it deems appropriate.

11. The Committee shall review and reassess this Charter periodically and submit any recommended changes to the Board for its consideration.

12. The Committee shall periodically report to the Board on its findings and actions.

V. Duties and Responsibilities Relating to Conflicts

The Committee shall have the authority to: (a) review and evaluate the terms and conditions, and to determine the advisability of any Related Party Transaction; (b) to negotiate the terms and conditions of any Related Party Transaction, and, if the Committee deems appropriate, but subject to the limitations of applicable law, to approve the execution and delivery of documents in connection with any Related Party Transaction on behalf of the Company; (c) to determine whether the relevant Related Party Transaction is in the best interests of the Company, and (d) to recommend to the Board what action, if any should be taken by the Board with respect to any Related Party Transaction.

The Committee is authorized to review, evaluate and approve of any potential Conflicts brought to its attention. The Committee shall report the results of its consideration of any such Conflict to the Board.

The Committee shall further have the authority to review, on a quarterly basis, the services provided by the Company's advisor, the reasonableness of the advisor's or its affiliates' fees and expenses (for services provided that are not identified in the Company's then effective advisory agreement with the advisor), the reasonableness of (a) the Company's expenses and (b) the allocation of expenses among the Company and other entities advised by affiliates of the Company's advisor and among accounting categories (to the extent applicable). The Committee may report its findings to the Board; provided however, that nothing contained herein requires the Committee members to independently review each fee and expense item, but instead the Committee is entitled to rely upon statements of the Company's management and any third-party independent parties retained to assist the Committee in this regard.

With respect to any matter subject to this Charter, the Committee shall have full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company and to request any officer or personnel of the Company, the Company's outside counsel, inside counsel, independent auditors or internal auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee.

These duties shall not extend to any Related Party Transactions or Conflicts for which the same duties have been or will be performed by another group of directors on the Board (including another committee) comprised of directors who meet the definition of "independent director" set forth in the NYSE Rules for listed companies.

VI. Delegation of Duties

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee shall be entitled to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee, to the extent consistent with the Company's charter, Bylaws and Corporate Governance Guidelines, applicable law, rules and regulations and the rules of any market in which the Company's securities are then listed.
