

JBT Corporation Announces Two New Airport Services Contracts Totaling Over $11 million

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- JBT Corporation (NYSE: JBT) announced today that its JBT AeroTech business has commenced operations for two new airport maintenance services contracts.

The first contract, with a freight services provider, was awarded for a term of five and one half years and is expected to generate in excess of $7 million in revenue over the life of the contract. JBT AeroTech will provide comprehensive facilities maintenance services at a new North American sortation and distribution facility.

The second contract, with a North American headquartered airline, was awarded for a term of three years and is expected to generate in excess of $4 million in revenue over the life of the contract. JBT AeroTech will provide comprehensive gate and baggage handling systems maintenance services for the airline.

"Our Airport Services business continues to grow and we are pleased to extend our presence with these new contracts," said John Lee, Vice President and Division Manager for JBT AeroTech. "Both of these projects will provide our customers with improved equipment uptime, reduced maintenance costs, and state of the art Computerized Maintenance Management Systems to improve operational transparency."
