

JBT Corporation Announces Award of Citrus Processing Conversion Contract

CHICAGO, June 8, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --JBT Corporation (NYSE: JBT) announced today that its JBT FoodTech business has been awarded an exclusive contract in excess of $30 million for the supply of new citrus processing equipment to French group Louis Dreyfus Commodities. The six year operating lease agreement includes the conversion of all LD Commodities' (Dreyfus) Brazil and US-based citrus processing facilities to JBT FoodTech citrus juice extractors and associated ancillary equipment.

Dreyfus participates in a wide variety of businesses and commodities including the processing of citrus fruits, being one of the world's three largest orange juice processors. Dreyfus markets citrus juice produced in their Brazil and U.S. operations to over 70 countries throughout North America, Europe, Asia Pacific, the Middle East and Latin America.

"We are very pleased with our strengthened relationship with Dreyfus and Dreyfus' confidence in JBT's leading citrus processing technology and proven track record for field service and technical support," said Juan Podesta, Vice President and General Manager for JBT FoodTech's Food Processing Systems Division. "Throughout the last citrus season, JBT's technical team worked closely with Dreyfus to unequivocally demonstrate JBT's strong value streams. We will continue to work closely with the Dreyfus team to contribute to our customer's success in achieving the optimal mix of yield, quality, and throughput that the market demands."

The project will be phased in over the next three years with all Dreyfus facilities fully converted to JBT FoodTech citrus extractors by the second quarter of 2013.
