

JBT Corporation Announces Award of New Juice Processing Project in Dubai, UAE

CHICAGO, Feb. 24, 2011 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --JBT Corporation (NYSE: JBT) announced today that its JBT FoodTech business signed two contracts with Aujan Industries Co. (Aujan) for a total of euro 6.1 million (approximately U.S. $8 million). Aujan is the largest privately owned beverage and confectionery company in the Middle East.

JBT FoodTech will provide two complete high-speed lines to process Aujan's unique beverage recipe of smooth juice with real fruit pieces. The solution enables the unloading of citrus pulp cells; the dosing and mixing of both intact pulp cells and juice at constant ratios; the pasteurization of the pulpy fruit beverage; and the filling into retail containers.

"We are very pleased with the opportunity to continue supporting Aujan's impressive success in pulpy fruit juices and beverages," said Juan Podesta, Vice President and General Manager for JBT FoodTech's Food Processing Systems Division. "We value our long lasting relationship with Aujan, which has led to steady improvements to enhance Aujan's process efficiency and product quality."

The order was received late in the fourth quarter of 2010 with the project currently scheduled to be operational in the third quarter of 2011.
