About WhiteHawk Minerals Corp.

WhiteHawk Minerals is focused on acquiring and managing high-quality natural gas mineral and royalty interests in premier U.S. basins, with a portfolio concentrated in the Appalachian and Haynesville Basins. As of March 31, 2026, WhiteHawk's portfolio spanned approximately 3.4 million gross DSU acres, including 1.6 million gross DSU acres across the Appalachian and Haynesville Basins and represents an economic interest in approximately 13% of all natural gas produced in the United States.

About EnerCom Denver

EnerCom Denver is the largest independent investor conference serving the global oil and gas and broader energy industry, bringing together more than 1,000 in-person attendees — including institutional investors, family offices, private equity, research analysts, and industry executives — across three days of company presentations, panel discussions, and one-on-one meetings. Now in its 31st year, the conference is hosted by EnerCom, Inc., a Denver-based investor relations and strategic communications consultancy serving the energy sector.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements in this news release may constitute "forward-looking statements." Forward-looking statements are statements that address or discuss activities, events or developments that the Company expects or anticipates may occur in the future. When used in this news release, words such as "estimates", "expects", "plans", "anticipates", "will", "believes", "intends", "should", "could", "may" and other similar terminology are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements reflect the current expectations and beliefs of the Company's management. Because forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, actual results, performance or achievements of the Company and its industry may be materially different from those implied by such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve significant uncertainties, should not be read as a guarantee of future performance or results, and will not necessarily be an accurate indication of whether or not such results will be achieved. A number of factors could cause actual results to differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, the ability of the Company to identify and execute future acquisitions on acceptable terms or at all, risks inherent to mineral and royalty companies, fluctuations in the market price of publicly listed shares held by the Company, natural gas price volatility, title and permitting matters, risks related to the operators of the properties underlying the Company's interests, litigation, general economic conditions and those other risks described in the Company's final long form prospectus dated June 9, 2026 and other disclosure documents, available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. These risks, as well as others, could cause actual results and events to vary significantly. Accordingly, readers should exercise caution in relying upon forward-looking statements and the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly revise them to reflect subsequent events or circumstances, except as required by law.
