PPG to Exhibit at First-Ever Virtual Experimental Aircraft Association Show

07/20/2020

Company will feature various products suitable for aviation special interest groups

OSHKOSH, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- PPG (NYSE:PPG) today announced that it will be participating in the first-ever virtual Experimental Aircraft Association \(EAA\) Spirit of Aviation Week™, July 21-25.

The five-day event will include streamed and on-demand content that encompasses nearly every subset of aviation, with a focus on educational, informational and entertaining content.

The virtual PPG booth will feature an array of products that are suitable for aviation special interest groups, including color coatings, transparency cleaning systems, rain repellent coatings and various paint systems – from pretreatments to topcoats.

PPG will highlight its PPG CLARITY™ Transparency Cleaning System, which is a two-part cleaning method that can easily remove debris, especially insect residue, from coated and uncoated plastic transparencies. Also featured will be PPG SURFACE SEAL™ hydrophobic coating, which is an industry-leading rain/water-shedding coating system designed for glass and anti-static coated glass windshields.

“Although this is not how we typically participate in the Spirit of Aviation Week, we are thrilled to have the opportunity to safely showcase our PPG aerospace products to the EAA community,” said Ward LaPaglia, PPG senior sales and market development, aerospace application support center, Indianapolis.

EAA embodies The Spirit of Aviation through the world’s most engaged community of aviation enthusiasts. EAA’s 230,000 members and 900 local chapters enjoy the fun and camaraderie of sharing their passion for flying, building and restoring recreational aircraft.

PPG’s global aerospace business offers coatings, sealants, transparencies, packaging and application systems, and transparent armor, as well as chemical management and other services. For more information, visit www.ppgaerospace.com.
