PPG, in Partnership with Sibi, Announces Four-Year Agreement with Tricon American Homes for PPG Paint Products

08/05/2020

PITTSBURGH--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- PPG (NYSE: PPG) and Sibi, a technology platform for supply chain, today announced a four-year partnership with Tricon American Homes (TAH) for PPG paint products. Financial details of the agreement were not disclosed.

Through the agreement, TAH will use a standardized set of PPG paint products with low or zero volatile organic compounds* (VOCs) for maintenance and new construction across TAH's more than 7,000 multi-family and 21,000 single-family rental properties in Arizona, California, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Nevada, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas.

"At Tricon American Homes, our commitment to an exceptional resident experience is paramount," said Kevin Baldrige, President, Tricon American Homes. "We are excited that this partnership allows us to use environmentally conscious and sustainable products that benefit our residents."

One of the standardized products is PPG SPEEDHIDE™ Pro-EV Zero vinyl acrylic paint, which is designed for new and repaint applications for commercial and multi-family construction. The product's low odor and zero VOCs* allow a space to be painted while occupied.

"Our primary focus is centered on building solutions where manufacturers of goods can connect with buyers of those goods in a transparent ecosystem," said Barrie Lindahl, CEO, Sibi. "We're stoked with the partnership and our ability to connect two innovative, forward-thinking companies."

"As Sibi's partner and paint supplier, we are proud to provide exceptional PPG paint products to TAH," said Vinny O'Sullivan, PPG senior general manager, trade, architectural coatings, U.S. and Canada. "We know that new home construction requires very specific coatings expertise, and PPG is well-equipped to provide the products, resources and know-how to get the job done right."
